Acknowledgement: I have read and discussed with my spouse the Association's Statement of faith and understand that the Association is a Christian organization. I have also read and discussed the Association's Code of Conduct and Organization with my spouse, and we agree to abide by the Code of Conduct and Organization. I and my spouse also agree that RHSA does not provide or organize transportation to and from RHSA events and that RHSA is not liable for any personal injury or property loss that might occur when one RHSA family transports members of another RHSA family. Such transportation is a private agreement between the parties and does not involve RHSA.
